MEMORIAL WINDOWS UNVEILED

Six handsome memorial windows, erected, respectively, by the states of Alabama, Tennessee, South Carolina, Mississippi, Maryland and Arkansas, were unveiled with imposing ceremonies, in historic old Blandford Church in Petersburg, yesterday afternoon. Four other windows have already been placed in the church by Virginia, North Carolina, Louisiana and Missouri. These windows are of handsome design, 9 1-2 feet long by 3 1-2 feet wide, and were all made at a cost of $400 each.

Each window bears the seal of its state, with the full-size figure of one of the apostles and an appropriate inscription. While all are of the same general design, they differ in figures, in foliage and delicate coloring. They are erected by the states to commemorate the valor and preserve the memory of their dead soldiers, buried to the number of 30,000 in Blandford cemetery.

The ceremonies yesterday afternoon were attended by a great crowd, including Governor Mann and his full staff, distinguished representatives of the several states and various Confederate organizations. They were opened with divine service conducted by Rev.
R. W. Barnwell, of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, and with appropriate music.

The South Carolina window was presented by Governor Ansel, of that state, unveiled by Mrs. Ansel and followed by an address by Hon. Francis H. Watson, of Charleston.

The Alabama window was unveiled by Mrs. Charles Brown and presented by Gen. C. Irvine Walker.

The Mississippi window was unveiled by Mrs. Lon Clark and presented by Hon. J. W. Valliant, of that state.

The Tennessee window was unveiled by Miss Howe and presented by Hon.
Benjamin Humphreys.

The Maryland window was unveiled by Miss Fannie Constable, and the Arkansas window by Miss Mary Harwood.

The presentations over, Governor Mann received them all in the name of the Petersburg Ladies' Memorial Association.

PREPARING FOR AN UPRISING.

The anti-foreign agitators in Nanking are causing considerable trouble and an outbreak is imminent. They have defiled the walls of the American con-sulate.

Plaques have been posted in the streets calling upon the people to rise and slaughter the foreigners and destroy their property. Threats that a revolution will be launched on June 5, the date set for the opening of the Nanking Exposition are causing Chinese merchants to flee with their treasures to the country districts, where they are burying their wealth. The authorities at Nanking have removed the bolts from the rifles of the soldiers.

The situation depends entirely upon the attitude of the military in Nanking which, up to the present, has not manifested symptoms of disloyalty. The United States cruiser New Orleans and the German and Japanese men-of-war are lying off the town, and it is believed that these vessels will be adequate to protect all foreigners in the event of an outbreak.

The foreign consuls at Nanking have received a warning from the revolutionists which is similar to that sent to the legations at Peking. It purports to emanate from the "revolutionary board of war," and announces that a day has been appointed for the opening of hostilities. Neutrals are warned not to interfere with the military preparations and protection is offered foreigners heeding this injunction. The consuls, however, are urging their fellow-citizens to leave Nanking.

KILLED IN A RUNAWAY.

Miss Marion Mossman, aged twenty-nine years, oldest daughter of Rev. W.
D. Mossman, of New Haven, head of the city missionary organization and a leading philanthropist, was killed at Guilford, about fifteen miles from New Haven yesterday afternoon in a runaway.

She was an expert horsewoman and a leader in athletics at Vassar College, where she graduated in 1901, and went to Guilford to get her pet horse Nita, which had been pastured there during the winter. The horse had been a prize winner in local horse shows.

Miss Mossman started to drive from Guilford to her summer home at Madison, about five miles away, when the horse took fright at a coil of wire in the street. She was thrown out and dragged a quarter of a mile before the horse was stopped. Her skull was fractured.

Lowest prices of the year were reached in Wall street yesterday.

GOLDSBORO

HEARD FROM

A Lady Who Lives in Goldsboro Joins in the Chorus of Praise for Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Goldsboro, N. C.—"A physician treated me for many distressing symptoms," writes Mrs. Etta A. Smith, "but gave me no relief.

"I suffered with neuralgia around the heart and was troubled at times with my head. I had pain in my left side, bowels, left thigh, shoulders and arms.

"After taking Cardui, I am now well and can recommend it to other suffering women."

Just such doubtful symptoms, as those from which Mrs. Smith suffered, are the ones for which it will pay you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

It is at such times, when there is nothing to show, for certain, the real cause of the trouble, that you need a tonic, to give the body strength to throw off the illness that evidently threatens.

Take Cardui, when you are ill, with the ailments of your sex. Take Cardui as a tonic, to prevent illness, when you feel it coming.

Your druggist keeps it.

tanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special
